

Tēnei Au (About me)

The 'Tēnei Au' section is where you can add information about you, that you wish to share with others.

Here is some more information to help you complete this section

What is important to me?

Telling others what is most important to you, can help others who are trying to support you to know how they can best do this for you.

Your Information

Add your name, address and other details about yourself

My Pae Ora Team

Pae Ora Team are the people in your life that support you. List them here to keep their information up to date and to share who your support network are.

This could be your friends, whānau or care providers.

Click 'Add +' to add as many Pae Ora Team as you wish.

Save your information

To save your information, Click Complete at the bottom of the page

